

VENUE CHARACTERISTICS

NOTICE: The Venue Characteristics are based on a collection of opinions from litigators who handle a broad range of litigation. The map should be used only as a reference. Other sources of information should be factored into whether the particular venue will be favorable or not for your case, including case specific information. The opinions asserted herein may vary depending on the type of case, such as whether it is a medical malpractice case as opposed to a trucking case, and other important details of your case. Please check with your attorney for a case specific opinion as to the venue for your case.
